

RUSSIANS CRASH GATEWAY TO BALKANS

Meandering Along the Main Stem

By WASH FAYETTE

Holes in socks are mean things! You put on a pair in the cold gray dawn and discover in the demi-light that there's a hole the size of a nailhead where your big toe touches. . . Oh, well," you say, "it's just a little one."

So, blithely and with thoughts of breakfast, you put them on and skip out the door, singing, "Oh, What a Beautiful Morning."

Along about 3 P. M., you suddenly become conscious your big toe is slowly choking to death . . . you wiggle it experimentally . . . you're right . . . that hole is two-bit size now, and your big toe nuzzles the end of your shoe and cries in pain.

One thing has always puzzled me . . . where does the hole in the sock go?

Mrs. E. B. Phillips, 711 Eastern Avenue, today knows her son, Robert, is safe.

A seaman in the U. S. Maritime Service, Mrs. Phillips hadn't heard from her son for three months. Most of that time he'd been out to sea—and letters just can't be mailed from the middle of the ocean.

In his letter, written from Cleveland, Phillips casually mentioned: "We had an encounter with a sub, but I am back safe and sound." . . . just like that, stuck in between inquiries about the rest of his family.

Selective Service coincidence: Joe Batson and Ed Baker were fellow clerks at Ellet Kaufman's Bargain Store. . . they walked down the street together to register for military service. . . they climbed on the bus together and sat in the same seat when they went for their pre-induction physical examinations. . . they got their greetings and call to arms the same day. . . last Saturday, with only one companion, they went to Columbus for induction. . . and today they are both in the Navy.

Wouldn't it be nice if they could serve on the same ship. . . and come marching home together before too long?

I have been impressed by the generous manner in which a great many of the leading manufacturers of the nation, as well as smaller concerns, and local business and manufacturing firms have boosted the sale of War Bonds and savings stamps.

One of the noteworthy examples of this is before me now in the shape of a wrapper from a 5 cent candy bar. On the reverse side of the wrapper are the words: "Enlist your savings now for Victory. Buy United States Savings Bonds and Stamps."

Nearly one-half of the outside of the wrapper is taken up with the boost for bonds and savings stamps. Well, I believe that the candy manufacturer who is carrying the free advertisement for the government realizes that if we don't win the war (and buying bonds and savings stamps is an essential part of winning the war) there would be little use for his product.

A day or two ago Marvin Slagle, well known Fayette County farmer, brought to this office a monster egg laid by one of his large hens. He gave me the egg, but so far I have not investigated to ascertain if it is a single yolk, double yolk, an egg within an egg, or just what its insides are composed of, but anyway I know it is one of the largest hen eggs I have ever beheld.

WAR CASUALTIES 173,239 INCREASE 3,947 IN WEEK

WASHINGTON, March 30.—(AP)—The latest reports on American war casualties set up the total at 173,239 for the army and navy, an increase of 3,947 in a week. Secretary of War Stimson said today that army casualties in all theaters through March 15 totaled 130,619. The latest total reported for the Navy, Marines and Coast Guard is 42,620.

NAZI ACE SHOT DOWN IN AIR BATTLE, ADMISION

LONDON, March 30.—(AP)—The German high command acknowledged today the loss of one of its greatest aces, Col. Wilke, in an air battle presumably with British or American fliers over western Europe. Col. Wilke claimed to have shot down 151 planes.

PLANE LOSSES OF ENEMY 4 TO 1 AGAINST YANKS

They Destroyed 11,049 in 1943 Stimson Says - - Draft Of 4-Fs Still Considered

WASHINGTON, March 30.—(AP)—The Army Air Forces destroyed 9,463 enemy planes in the air and 1,579 on the ground in 1943, Secretary of War Stimson reported today, while losing 2,809 in aerial combat and 76 on the ground.

This edge of nearly four to one, said the secretary, represented a tabulation of results from all theaters. As the scale of the offensive increased, he said, the air forces destroyed almost twice as many enemy planes in the last six months of the year as in the first half of 1943, and its own losses increased about 80 percent in that period.

Box Score Summary

In a summary box score on victories and losses, Stimson presented these figures:

World total: 9,463 enemy planes destroyed, 2,743 probably destroyed, 3,402 damaged in air combat; 1,579 destroyed, 222 probably destroyed and 575 damaged on the ground; AAF losses—2,809 destroyed in the air, 76 on the ground.

United Kingdom: 3,832 enemy planes destroyed, 962 probably destroyed, 1,832 damaged in the air; no claims of enemy aircraft destroyed on the ground; AAF losses—899 in the air, none on the ground.

Mediterranean: 2,824 enemy planes destroyed, 789 probably destroyed, 960 damaged in the air; 814 destroyed, 113 probably destroyed and 397 damaged on the ground; AAF losses—1,307 in the air, 24 on the ground.

Southwest Pacific and China-Burma-India: 2,279 enemy planes destroyed, 820 probably destroyed, 459 damaged in the air; 742 destroyed, 103 probably destroyed.

TROUBLE IS BREWING IN PALESTINE, CLAIM

Outbreak of Feud Between Jews and Arabs Looms

By JOHN F. CHESTER

JERUSALEM, March 30.—(AP)—The situation in Palestine on the eve of the expiration of the British white paper under which the difficult Jewish and Arab matters have been regulated since 1939 found both sides considerably although illegally armed today, with the picture splintered by recent sporadic outbreaks of violence and the outlook still admittedly tense.

Authorities continued hopeful, however, that major clashes could be averted. A dusk curfew has been imposed and stringent laws carrying death penalty for extreme terrorist activities have been reissued following last week's bomb-throwing incidents which cost the lives of nine policemen, six of them British.

While the brooding calm continued, the fiercest dust storms in 15 years raged across the Sinai Desert, cutting off Palestine rail and road communications with Egypt.

Quadruplets Are Born As Audience Looks On

NEW YORK, March 30.—(AP)—The Zariet quadruplets, born prematurely yesterday, had their first formula-feeding today.

A bulletin issued by Sloane Hospital for women revealed the three girls and one boy—"probably" the first quadruplets in New York City's history—slept well and were given sugar and water during the night. The first feeding was at 9 A. M.

Mrs. Eleanor Zariet, 27, their mother, also rested comfortably, the hospital said.

The infants, described by attendants as "nice active babies," occupied air-conditioned, oxygenated cribs in Sloane's Nursery.

Setback At Cassino Admitted Now But Viewed As Lesson

Secretary of War Says Results Not What Had Been Hoped For and That Great Many Things Learned

WASHINGTON, March 30.—(AP)—Secretary of War Stimson, discussing the situation at Cassino, said today "the simple fact is that the Germans stopped us."

He told a press conference the Allied attack on the Italian fortress town "has subsided for the time being without achieving the results for which we had hoped."

The Germans, Stimson said, showed again "that they are obstinate and effective soldiers who do not quit when they are ordered to hold a key post at all cost."

"Their occupation of the steep hills where their guns covered the town gave the Nazis a continual advantage," Stimson said. "The bomb and shell destruction which our planes and guns wrought in Cassino did not prevent a garrison defense by those who survived our explosives and by other enemy troops who filtered in to join them."

"The rubble was good cover and the tunnels or caves in the adjoining hills gave shelter and ease of movement. The rains immediately after the plane and gun barrage made a morass of the open ground around the town and limited the use of our tanks, while slowing the advance of troops climbing the hills under fire."

Stimson followed up his blunt acknowledgment that the Germans stopped the Allies at Cassino with this statement:

"That would be a severe setback only if we did not profit from our lessons. We have learned a great many things since the war and we have put our learning into practice. There is no reason to believe that our ability to profit from experience has ended now."

The secretary also reminded reporters that "no one made this a test of Allied power or suggested that in these operations we are concentrating our main strength."

"I say this," Stimson said, "not to minimize the obvious facts of the Cassino action but to keep that action in a proper perspective."

WOODEN BULLETS USED BY GERMANS IN ITALY FIGHTING

BATTLE CREEK, Mich., March

30.—(AP)—A novel wooden bullet which infiltrating German forces fire at the backs of American soldiers has made its appearance in the fighting in Italy, wounded veterans at Percy Jones General Hospital said today.

The bullet, they explained, has a range of between 100 and 200 yards, a distance sufficient to wound an adversary but not enough to carry back into German lines. They said it is made in the pattern of a regulation .30 calibre shell with a brass casing and a hard wood "like mahogany" pressed inside.

Sgt. Raymond J. Michael of Peoria, Ill., who was struck on the right arm by a German grenade while fighting four miles from Cassino, said the wooden bullets were used by the Germans at night. He explained:

"The Jerries would send a patrol back of our lines and then they'd open up on our rear with these wooden things. The range was short and they were sure with them that the bullets wouldn't go on past us and into the German lines."

FREEDOM OF PRESS URGED BY BRICKER

Lack of Freedom Blamed for Pearl Harbor Attack

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo.,

March 30.—(AP)—Governor John W. Bricker of Ohio believes that complete freedom of the press and radio had existed in America when the Japanese struck at Pearl Harbor the Pacific naval base never would have been attacked.

In an interview here last night, he said if the American people had known the facts "they would have been so aroused the administration would have been forced to take steps to protect our outposts."

Bricker, candidate for the Republican presidential nomination, criticized the Roosevelt administration for domestic and foreign propaganda activities and pledged himself, if elected, to discharge more than 4,500 "propaganda agents."

Traps Set For Japs

Allied Air Commandos Cut Enemy Communications in Burma Jungle—Mop-up Fighting Continues on Pacific Islands While Planes Blast Jap Bases

By J. B. KRUEGER

(By the Associated Press)

Allied air commandos have struck at Mohnyin, Burma, in an apparent move to isolate further the important Japanese base at Myitkyina, toward which Lt. Gen. Joseph Stilwell's American and Chinese forces are driving.

Adm. Lord Louis Mountbatten's headquarters today said the glider-borne commandos in a slashing attack on enemy communications, damaged Japanese headquarters in Mohnyin. This town is on the railway connecting Mandalay and Myitkyina. Myitkyina, north of the Burma Road, stands between a junction of this highway and the New Leda supply route out of India.

Gen. Stilwell's American-trained Chinese pushed on southward toward the enemy base, cutting the main road 14 miles inside the Mogaung Valley and setting up a road block a mile north of Laban. Mountbatten's headquarters estimated Stilwell's forces have killed some 2,500 Japanese in the drive on Myitkyina.

Elsewhere in the Burma battle the fighting grew in violence. Stilwell's Chinese fighters in addition trapped 1,000 Japanese troops north of Shaduzup, above Myitkyina.

Allied troops inflicted heavy casualties on a Japanese force driving up the Tiddum road toward Imphal, important communication center about 15 miles inside India.

A second threat to Imphal was countered with a concentrated blasting by planes and artillery of a Japanese column caught in the open while driving on that city from the north. The column

Japs Being Wiped Out On Bougainville -- Loss Of Life Means Nothing

Commander of Ohio Outfit Says He Can't 'Conceive of Them Lasting Longer Than 10 Days' - - Killed at Ratio of 30 Nips To One Yank

ON BOUGAINVILLE, in the Solomons, March 28.—(Delayed)—(AP)—Maj. Gen. Robert S. Beightler of Columbus, O., commander of the 37th division, said today he "could not conceive" of the Japanese on Bougainville lasting more than 10 days longer.

"I think conservatively 5,000 have been killed by the 37th—half of that number inside our wire," General Beightler said. "His losses were at the ratio of 30 to one of ours. They're already impotent as a fighting force. I can't conceive of the Japs lasting more than 10 days longer on Bougainville."

"A number of Jap bodies had fresh bandages. There have been a great many wounded, but he throws them right back in—any one with two legs and one arm. He's determined and desperate. However, I think he'll strike again as soon as he has reorganized. Loss of life means nothing to him but glory."

INVASION OF HAWAII IS FEARED BY NIMITZ

Statement Made at Hearing On Martial Law

U. S. PACIFIC FLEET HEADQUARTERS, Pearl Harbor, March 30.—(AP)—Adm. Chester W. Nimitz and Lt. Gen. Robert C. Richardson jointly declared in affidavits filed in federal district court yesterday that the territory of Hawaii "now is in imminent danger of invasion" by Japanese armed forces and has been in such danger since the attack on Pearl Harbor December 7, 1941.

The affidavits were filed with their answer to a habeas corpus case challenging the necessity and validity of continuing martial law in Hawaii.

Nimitz is commander-in-chief of the Pacific ocean areas. Richardson commands United States Army forces in the Central Pacific and is military governor of Hawaii.

SWINDLER OF FAMILIES OF SERVICEMEN JAILED

COLUMBUS, March 30.—(AP)—William Kimmel, 44, of Philadelphia pleaded guilty to defrauding servicemen's families and was sentenced to 120 days in jail and fined $420 yesterday.

Kimmel solicited cash in advance for enlargement and coloring of pictures of servicemen from families in Springfield, Dayton, Cincinnati, Columbus and several eastern cities but never delivered the pictures, Edgar Butler, city license inspector, reported.

FIGHT IN ITALY TAPERS OFF TO AERIAL ATTACKS

American and British Bombs Dumped on Nazi Plants Night and Day

By RICHARD McMURRAY

(By the Associated Press)

The Germans announced today the evacuation of Czernowitz (Cernauti), third largest city of pre-war Rumania and gateway to the Balkans, which the Russians said they had stormed from the north and west after forcing the Prut River.

Czernowitz has a population of 110,000. It lies on the Bucharest-Lwow railroad which was cut yesterday when the Red army, driving up the slopes of the Carpathian mountains to within 30 miles of Czechoslovakia, captured Kolomea on the Prut. Czernowitz is the capital of Bucovina province, the northern half of which Russia took from Rumania in 1940.

The Germans also announced a continued retreat—"disengagement movement according to orders"—from the Ukrainian Bug River on the eastern approaches to Odessa.

Moving on Czechoslovakia

The German communique disclosed yet another retreat of 20 miles in the south of old Poland, reporting "heavy fighting with advanced Russian formations" in the Stanislaw area. Stanislaw lies 70 miles southeast of Lwow on the railroad leading to Bucharest and 40 miles from the Carpathian mountain frontier of Czechoslovakia. It lies on a direct rail line 550 miles southeast of Berlin.

The whole German account had the tenor of grave reverses but said the surrounded garrisons at Tarnopol and Kovel still were holding out. Kovel is deep inside old Poland. The Germans also reported important Russian attacks in northern Estonia.

Berlin said the Russians were throwing 15 rifle divisions and three tank corps, upwards of 175,000 men, into the battle for the White Russian pathways to the Baltics in new smashes at the 100-mile German arc between Vitebsk and Chaussy. It said the new offensive had been unable to gain ground.

Battle of Italy

Fifth Army forces repelled two small enemy attacks on the Anzio beachhead yesterday while Allied planes ranged over Italy, hitting targets in the Rome, Turin and Bolzano areas and sweeping across the Adriatic to bomb Sofia.

The communique made no reference to the Cassino front.

The attack on Sofia, capital of Bulgaria, was carried out last night by both heavy and medium bombers.

In addition to assaults on rail lines in northern Italy, air operations yesterday included sweeps against the Viterbo airfield north of Rome and harbor and rail installations in northwest Italy.

Twenty-two enemy aircraft were destroyed during the day's operations against an Allied loss of 11. The Mediterranean Allied air force flew approximately 1,800 sorties.

Field dispatches said German tanks in Cassino again tried the strength of Allied defenders in the Continental Hotel area, but Fifth Army artillery dispersed them. A German patrol crossed the Rapido River south of the town but withdrew when Allied forces engaged it.

TIRE THIEVES BEING SOUGHT BY THE SHERIFF

Stole Two from Loy Morris On Devalon Road During Night

Sheriff Icenhower is seeking two men who, around the midnight hour Wednesday night, stole two tires from the Loy Morris premises on the Devalon Road, and is anxious for the driver of a car headed toward Bloomingburg, who passed the pair as they were removing the tires from the wheels in the road in front of the Morris home, to get in touch with his office.

One of the tires taken was an Acme 650-16 and the other was a Goodyear 600-16.

The car containing the thieves is described as an old one, with a noisy muffler, and with four lights showing in front.

It had been driven up and down the road several times prior to the theft.

After stealing the tires from the Morris premises, taking one from his automobile and the other from a shed nearby, the thieves removed the tires from the wheels within 50 yards of the gate leading into the Morris home.

The noise, laughter and conversation of the pair attracted the attention of members of the Morris family, but they believed it was someone changing a tire and did not investigate.

Sheriff Icenhower asks that anyone who saw the thieves on the road at the Morris premises get in touch with him with all information they have.

Theft of tires is a very serious offense since war time restrictions were imposed upon tires.

Secretary of War Stimson said today it was essential to draw 4-F men into the war effort, but that he would accept their induction into the Army as a labor corps only as a last resort.

Questioned at his press conference about the statement of Undersecretary of War Robert P. WIVES AND SONS OF SOLDIERS IN SERIOUS CRASH

Mrs. William Pollard and Mrs. Paul Garringer and Sons in Hospital

Hopes of two Washington C. H. soldiers and their wives for picking up something of their normal lives together after a short separation following induction into the service less than a month ago ended in tragedy.

Mrs. William Pollard and Mrs. Paul Garringer and their infant sons today are in General Hospital at Nashville, Tenn., as the result of an automobile accident which occurred at the edge of the city Wednesday evening while they were en route to join their husbands at Camp Wolters, Texas.

This much was learned early Thursday morning by Lawrence Pollard, a brother of Pvt. Pollard, here in a telephone conversation with a physician at the hospital in Nashville. He said he had not yet been able to find out just how the accident occurred, however.

Information Meager

From the meager information given by the physician, Pollard said, it was apparent that his brother's year old son Jimmy was the most seriously hurt and his wife was in a critical condition. Jimmy, he said, the physician had told him, had suffered severe head injuries and added that he was not expected to live. Mrs. Pollard was still unconscious when the call came through, he said. She, too, had serious head injuries.

Mrs. Garringer, it was said at the hospital, was cut about the head and was suffering from shock. Her son, about the same age as Jimmy, was said to have escaped serious injury.

Pvt. Pollard was notified of the accident, his brother said, and planned to go to Nashville immediately.

Mrs. Pollard and Mrs. Garringer were going to Camp Wolters to make temporary homes with their husbands. They were traveling in the Garringer car and Pollard said he presumed Mrs. Garringer was doing the driving when the accident occurred.

round these men, between the ages of 18 and 37, with statutory controls which would offer them the choice between essential jobs and Army labor battalions.

The committee worked under the spur of a request from the War and Navy departments that something be done immediately to find replacements for younger, occupationally - deferred men needed for combat service.

Costello told reporters, "We are going to sit during the recess and will ask the War Department to help us draft the legislation."

Predicting prompt action by both the Senate and the House, Costello said he believed the legislation should provide for control of activities not only of 4-F's between 18 and 37 but also of 4-F's up to 45 and of non-fathers between 38 and 45.

Ultimately, Costello declared, the armed forces presumably will insist on taking only men under 31 for general service and putting older men into labor battalions if they fail to go into essential jobs.

Political Echoes

There were indications today that the setback which the Republican party received in the Oklahoma congressional election may shift the GOP attack from the administration's domestic record to its foreign policy.

Senator Wherry (R-Neb.) asserted, on the heels of the Democratic victory in Oklahoma that the administration's "vacillating and vague" foreign program would become of paramount concern to the voters before November.

Home for a Sailor's Kin

Congress is hurrying to the rescue of sailors' families who want to be in port with their men during stopovers between battle actions but can't find a place to live.

The Senate has completed action on a $1,644,373,024 naval shore works bill authorizing temporary housing for transient personnel and their dependents. Occupancy on a rental basis would be limited to 60 days.

was bombed by night with heavy and medium bombers. Allied planes in 1,800 sorties from Italy slammed explosives into Rome, the north Italian metropolis of Turin, the Brenner Pass bottleneck of Bolzano and the great Viterbo airfields beyond Rome. At the cost of 11 planes, these Allied fliers destroyed 22 German craft.

Another 48 were downed by American planes striking from Britain at the central German aircraft plants of Brunswick and at the Calais invasion coast of France. Nine bombers and nine fighters were lost.

British heavy bombers by night assaulted rail yards at Vaires, 15 miles east of Paris, and an engine works at Lyon in southern France. Mosquitos bombed Kiel. One plane was lost.

German radios were silent today, indicating another daylight battle by American bombers.

Finland once again was reported to be angling for peace. Dr. Juho Paasikivi, 1940 peace maker, was said to be on another mission, possibly to Moscow.

Nazi Slaughter Continues

The surging Russian armies encroached upon the Black Sea city of Odessa on a 215-mile semicircular front, sweeping up 150 localities on the way. Capturing strategic Kolomea on the Prut River, the Russians snapped the Bucharest-Lwow railway, forcing the Germans to rely on routes through Hungary.

The telegram stated the Flying Fortress on which he was a tall gunner was lost over Denmark. His parents believe he may be a German prisoner.

Pvt. Harmon had been in the service less than a year. Before entering the army air corps he was engaged in farming with his father.

THE WAR TODAY

By DEWITT MACKENZIE

British Prime Minister Churchill's surprise move in challenging his House of Commons to give him a blanket vote of confidence for his war and post-war policies, after he had been defeated on a purely domestic issue, is typical of this square-jawed individualist—whole hog or nothing!

The Premier apparently caught his opponents off guard, for certainly many of those who voted against the government (on an educational measure giving women teachers the same pay as men) weren't registering lack of confidence in his general policies. Indeed they made it clear that they wished to dissociate the domestic matter from the broader issues, but he hunched his expansive shoulders and called for a showdown.

Churchill's reason for this move undoubtedly was that there has been a growing volume of adverse criticism leveled at his government. He devoted part of his speech last Sunday to rebuking critics for rocking the political boat in war time. Part of the criticism has concerned domestic affairs. However, it appears to me to have been due largely to lack of public information regarding international policies, affecting Britain in particular and the United Nations in general.

You will see what I mean if you will stop and check on the amount of concrete, official information you yourself have regarding the political decisions, or lack of decisions, at any of the big Allied conferences. It's mighty meagre.

Well now, the Allied public are asking just what the relations are among the big three—Britain, America and Russia—and how those relations are affecting the military and political trend.

The nearer we get to the end of the European War, the greater the problems become. And what more natural than that, since upon their solution depend the political complexion of the world and the maintenance of peace?

Many of the anxieties are inspired by lack of knowledge regarding Russia's post-war aims. She is emerging as a new force. The main thing we know is that she will be the dominant power of the whole Eastern Hemisphere—both continental Europe and Asia. What we don't know is how she will use her vast new influence. That doesn't necessarily mean that the peoples of the other Allies distrust Moscow, but merely that they don't know how things are developing.

Not to sidestep any issues, apparently relations between Uncle Sam and John Bull also are a matter of concern to our overseas friends. Only yesterday Foreign Secretary Eden was asked in Commons by Laborite Emanuel Shinwell to make clear "that so far as Europe is concerned we could not allow our foreign policy to be wholly dictated by the United States." Eden of course said that "there is absolutely no suggestion of that." We Yanks have been cocking an eyebrow

ANOTHER PUMP TO FIGHT FIRE REACHES CITY

Government Sends Equipment To Be Used in This Community

Another 500 gallon-per-minute pump for fighting fire has been added to the equipment in this city, and is meant for fire fighting in the rural areas as well as at this point as needed.

This is known as a "skid pump" and is to be mounted on a Chevrolet truck owned by Fayette County, for use wherever needed. Just how it will be manned has not been decided, but for the time being local firemen may man it until other arrangements can be made, if any.

This pump, like the trailer pump recently received from the Office of Civilian Defense, Army Supply Depot, is sent out by the government to augment present fire equipment in areas where vital war industries are located, and where likelihood of bombing exists in case of enemy air attack in the United States.

The county has had a truck in readiness to mount the "skid pump" for some time. The pump is capable of handling any ordinary fire if water is available, and is equipped with suction hose, 400 feet of 2½ inch hose and 200 feet of smaller hose, as well as ladders, and other equipment, making the unit a complete outfit.

It is possible to speed up the pump to around 750 gallons of water per minute if necessary, but it is rated 500 gallons per minute.

Mounted on the Chevrolet truck the equipment would be available for farm fires within a radius of several miles of this city. However details along this line must be worked out later.

and asking some questions about Britain, too, for that matter.

So the people of Britain are concerned. And why not, when the welfare of their entire empire is so deeply involved? What they really are demanding, and undoubtedly will continue to demand, is information and not necessarily a change of basic policies—of which they know comparatively little.

Do you know why bombing is more terrifying than artillery fire? Well, it's because the bombs come at you willy-nilly, without any fixed source, while you know exactly the direction from which the gun-fire comes. The shells are dangerous, but you can at least face your menace squarely.

That's the way it is with unexplained policies.

GIRLS, GRANDMOTHERS NOW FORCED TO WORK IN BLASTED GERMANY

One newspaper describes operations in a bombed-out almond paste factory supplying concentrated foods to the German army. The workers are working two hour shifts.

The girls, says the paper, "average 12 years of age, but there are also nine and 10-year-olds among them." Grandmothers on the payroll range in age up to 72. Women volunteers expect to work in munitions plants and other factories "wherever possible near their homes," the paper said, and millions are being urged to accept home work assignments, such as sewing.

These drastic efforts to get women to fill the gaps in the labor ranks take on particular significance when one reads appeals to bombed out workers to return to their jobs.

One appeal stresses that "only the worker who has found full, authorized employment in new production areas has the right to remain away. Otherwise, failure to return will make him subject to punishment."

Zarief, a short, trim, mustached man, who is concert master for the Columbia Broadcasting System, refused to comment much about his fatherhood, explaining he sold exclusive rights to his story to the New York Daily News.

Teddy Zarief, 6, the couple's other child, was completely disinterested in his three little sisters. His only comment was: "Now I'll have a new brother to play with."

The grandmother of the quadruplets, Mrs. Isidore Miller, of Newark, N. J., said Teddy was unimpressed by the impending event but casually turned it to good use several months ago.

He was late to school, she said, and explained to his teacher that he had to help his mother put her shoes on "because she was expecting quadruplets." The teacher told Mrs. Miller later she thought Teddy must be an unusual, imaginative child because, although she had heard almost every excuse for tardiness, quadruplets was a brand new one.

Man Had Brick In His Stomach for 10 Years

One man recently stated that for 10 years he felt like he had a brick in his stomach. This feeling was due to the lump of undigested food he always had inside of him. He was weak, worn out, headachy, swollen with gas and terribly constipated. Recently he started taking ERB-HELP and says the feeling like a brick in his stomach disappeared the second day. Bowels are regular now, gas and headaches are gone and he feels like a new man.

ERB-HELP contains 12 Great Herbs; they cleanse bowels, clear gas from stomach, act on sluggish liver and kidneys. Miserable people soon feel different all over. So don't go on suffering. Get ERB-HELP. Finley's Drug Store.

CHAIN LETTERS HELD ILLEGAL

War Stamp Scheme Being Promoted in Mails

Postmaster W. E. Passmore calls attention to another "chain letter" which is flooding the mails at the present time, contrary to postal regulations.

Chain letters and postcards are not permitted, and writers of them are violating postal laws everytime they mail one, it is pointed out.

The statement in the letter that "this plan has been approved by the U. S. Postal authorities, etc.," is incorrect, it is pointed out by Postmaster Passmore.

The new letter reads:

"WAR STAMPS PLAN"
"Buy a 25 cent war stamp, send it to the person whose name appears first on the list below."
"Mail 5 copies of this letter, leaving off the first name, adding your own name to the bottom. Mail these 5 copies to 5 persons on whom you can depend to keep this chain going."

"This plan has been approved by the U. S. Postal authorities and it is to promote the sale of war stamps and bonds. Several stamps will be mailed to you providing this chain is not broken. "If you do not wish to continue this chain, please send it back to me within 5 days."

ENUMERATION TO START IN APRIL

Miss Helen King, Vocational Students at Reins

The annual school enumeration or census will be conducted this year by Miss Helen King, coordinator of the vocational commercial department of WHS, and students in the class, A. B. Murray, superintendent of city schools, said today.

The census, involving a house to house canvass, will probably begin the first part of April, Miss King said. Reports of the enumeration must be made by May 1.

Purpose of the enumeration is to determine the number of children from five to 18 years of age eligible for school, Murray said. Pupils who will be six years old on or before December 31 will be eligible for the first grade, he pointed out.

Use It the Way Intended
When Lend-Lease got under way three years ago, British Foreign Minister Anthony Eden pledged his country to refrain from exporting Lend-Lease material received from us, or substituting Lend-Lease for British goods and using the latter for commercial exports.

Now it is reported that preliminary negotiations are under way to relax that agreement.

The report has brought an unfavorable reaction from members of Congress, including some administration stalwarts. One of them, Rep. Sol Bloom of New York, chairman of the House foreign affairs committee, said, "I will not stand for relaxing that pledge and neither will the Congress."

The proposal, as Sen. Pat McCarran of Nevada has pointed out, is a violation of the spirit of Lend-Lease. This arrangement has been one of America's wisest and most profitable ventures, and the advantages have been reciprocal. Lend-Lease substantially helped Britain, Russia and, to a lesser extent China, hang on while we prepared for war.

It started putting our industry on a war footing nine months before Pearl Harbor, an invaluable aid to our prodigious production since then.

Without Lend-Lease it is most unlikely that prospects of victory would be as bright as they are today.

There was no question of counting the cost. Russia's millions of casualties and the more than 40,000 English civilians killed by German bombs cannot be measured against the $20 billion this country has spent and the $2 billion received in reverse Lend-Lease. Only a heartlessly mercenary person would attempt it. Our industry and our government have done what they could, and gladly.

For that reason there has been no objection to the fact that the British government has sold Lend-Lease food to the British people. But dispensable civilian goods for export are not food. Britain's peacetime economy is vitally dependent upon export trade, of course. But Lend-Lease is a military, not a commercial arrangement.

We ordinary taxpaying citizens cannot be expected to know all the deep-dish ramifications of the diplomatic negotiations now going on. But it just doesn't seem logical that Lend-Lease is the proper instrument for the resumption of Great Britain's commercial export trade.

Our Growing Shipping
One of the problems to be ironed out after the war will be merchant shipping. London regards it as a delicate situation and suggests that conferences might be called before the end of hostilities to discuss the subject.

Reduced to its simplest form, England fears she will be deposed as mistress of the seven seas. She held that position for many prewar years. With 18,000,000

If you are celebrating a birthday today you are analytical and give a great deal of thought and careful consideration to a problem before doing anything important. You should trust your friends. Do not search for the motives underlying their actions, for in doing this, you will bring only unhappiness to yourself. A somewhat involved, chaotic state exists at present in your domestic, love and social activities, so use the utmost caution. Better concentrate on hard work and not illusory pleasures. gross tons of merchant shipping, England far outstripped the United States which had approximately one-half that tonnage. The picture has changed greatly since 1939. Toll of war has reduced Britain to a bare 10,000,000 tons, while America has built her merchant fleet to the dominating figure of 30,000,000 tons. The English cannot hold their position in the shipping world with less than 20,000,000 tons. To acquire that figure will be most difficult, they fear.

Britons see that in spite of present friendly relations between the two countries, the United States will be able to dominate merchant shipping. War is one thing and hardheaded business is something entirely different, they conclude.

At any rate, the British are pressing America to announce what they term "honorable intentions" concerning shipping after the war.

Washington at a Glance By JACK STINNETT

WASHINGTON — If you doubt that this is an election year and politics is going full tilt, just look behind every door that's opening these days. The Democratic party is trying strenuously to put its house in order before the Republicans can effect a unity behind any single candidate. Political observers here consider significant the recent move to put the Democratic party back in the youth column. For some months now there has been a critical ground swell leveled at the "aging New Deal." It is pointed out that today the President's cabinet has an average age of 64; that his "inner circle" now has an average age of 60. The President's opponents are gleefully making capital of this because it's a vulnerable point. It's only seven years since the administration made its great fight against the "nine old men" on the Supreme Court and their average age then was only a few more years than the President's cabinet today.

While there is no indication that there's any shake-up due in the cabinet or the so-called "inner circle" (rumors to the contrary) there's proof positive that the "youth movement" is under way in party organization. Forty-year-old Robert Emmet Hannegan, ex-football player and a veteran of the rough-and-tumble politics of St. Louis, has been called in to replace 57-year-old Frank C. Walker as chairman of the Democratic national committee. The Postmaster-General doesn't qualify as a graybeard. With the exceptions of Secretaries Wickard and Morgenthau, who are 51 and 52 respectively, he's the youngest member of the cabinet. But there are some years between Hannegan and Walker. The latter was 45 when Roosevelt was first elected; the former 28. The two principal members of Hannegan's staff are even younger. Mrs. Dorothy Vredenburg, new secretary of the committee, and a "southern belle" to match the Clare Boothe Luce, is only 27. Paul

Porter, who just escapes the draft by one year at 39, replaces the aging Charlie Michelson as the party's director of publicity. REPUBLICAN strategists here aren't underestimating the importance of this "youth movement" in the opposition party, but some of them admit off-the-record that there isn't much they can do about it until the GOP is consolidated behind its nominee. On this score, the Republicans for once may have the advantage in holding their convention weeks before the Democratic nominee is named. Regardless of whom the Republicans select at their convention in June, they would be in a position to shape an organization that would be just as gory with young blood as anything the Democrats can put up. In the meantime, you can look for complaints that the New Deal, after 12 years, is growing whiskers and that in four years more it will be doddering.

Aspects of Vision in Young and Old

By LOGAN CLENDENING, M.D.
POOR VISION is a problem that has different aspects in the young from that which it has in older people. Poor vision in children is due, in nearly all cases, to poor mechanical construction of the eye—short-sightedness and far-sightedness—which depend on improper length of the eyeball or astigmatism, which is improper curvature of the cornea. These mechanical defects do not cause any disability until the child begins intensive use of the eyes—until it begins school. An astigmatic, or short-sighted, eye does very well for walking and running around, playing with toys, etc. And the child, never being conscious of any disability, may be utterly confused when it is called upon to read, and can make no sense out of the printed page. Never having experienced any visual difficulty before, it cannot analyze the reason for not being able to keep up with its companions. And the parents put it down to stubbornness. Child's Sight Defects It is a common experience for an oculist to have such a child brought to him and on asking it to read the letters on a test chart, which would require a visual acuity of only 5 per cent of normal, to have the child exclaim: "I don't see any letters at all." It doesn't mean the child is going blind or is partially blind, merely near-sighted. Poor vision in the old, or middle aged, however, never has this kind of approach. The middle aged man knows his vision is failing because he has a standard of an active life with good vision to compare it by. Of course in the middle aged not one case in a thousand is due to anything but the natural loss of elasticity of the lens—presbyopia—which glasses will remedy. But that one in a thousand case may be cataract or glaucoma. Glaucoma is an increase in the pressure inside the eyeball. If not relieved the pressure may destroy the optic nerve. This can be prevented in over 90% of cases if it is discovered early enough.

A Model is Murdered — BABS LEE
CHAPTER THIRTY-SIX
Argus smiled. "Did Stoffsky have any visitors?"
"I dunno. I never see one."
"Well, thanks," said the detective. "If this guy Stoffsky should come back, which I hardly believe likely, call the police immediately."
"I will, mister," promised the Swede, fervently.
Argus returned to the second floor, carrying the garbage pail.
"Get anything out of that Swede?" Inspector Grange asked.
"I questioned him when I first came in, but I'm going to ask him a few more things."
Argus told him the substance of his conversation.
"Well," said Grange, "I didn't get much more out of him myself. But I think I've got the solution: Redbeard was an inventor, and some one paid him to build this machine and set it up in Syria's apartment. Now, just who Redbeard is doesn't matter for the moment. The person we want is the one behind the crime."
"Yes?" questioned Argus.
"And that some one might be Carstairs, Sr. He had the motive and the money to pay plenty for such a service. Incidentally, what was he doing in your apartment this morning?" Grange launched at Steele's surprised expression.
"We've been talking him," he explained.
"He swooped down on me like a blitz of buzzards," said Argus, "and offered to buy back his check."
"Well, you see?" stressed Grange. "He knows that's the evidence that will stand up in court to prove his connection with Syria Verne—and probably Martinielli, through her."
"He tried to tell me," Argus said. "That the check was just a little consolation prize to make up for his son's dishonorable intentions."
"Applesauce!" snapped Grange. "He wouldn't have run the risk of openly trying to buy the check back if his only worry was that Syria might have sued Bill for alienation of affections. And he's too cagey a business man not to have gotten a written release from her, if that was it. No, sir!"
Grange's eyes narrowed and he shook his finger for emphasis. "You remember, I've thought ever since we went to the Whittan Club that old man Carstairs might have brain-trusted this whole thing—and just hired Redbeard."
"Of course," he continued reflectively. "The same could be said of his son, Bill or even of Bill's wife, Dorry. Say!" Grange broke off. "I've been doing all the talkin' here. What's your theory on this Redbeard?"
"First I'd like to know whether Sturgis' watch stopped naturally, or whether somebody tampered with it after he was shot," Argus said. "The doc said rigor mortis had set in and he figures he was murdered about ten o'clock last night. It couldn't have been this morning because there hasn't been enough time for rigor mortis."
"So what?" posed Grange.
"So I figure—as you suggested a while ago—that Sturgis must have gotten wise to who this Redbeard was," Argus explained, "and where he had his hideout. So he comes up here . . ."
"Maybe while Redbeard is out shooting Flagg," the Inspector interrupted, "and going through Sturgis' papers at his studio."
"Possibly," suggested Argus.
"But, in any case, Redbeard returns here, finds Sturgis, shoots him and skeedaddles." He paused a moment. "I'm just wondering who was shot first—Sturgis or Roger Flagg—and if there were any connection?"
"Did you find anything in that trash pail?" Grange asked, noticing it for the first time. Argus showed him.
"That newspaper story is last night's paper must've scared him plenty," Detective Steele said. "And I think this torn bit of newspaper may give us a clue to Syria's hideout in the country." He spread out the steeper. "Those last two letters at the top, 'an,' may be the tail end of 'Callahan.' Syria's real name, 'Rd.' probably stands for Road, and 'ey' is all that's left of 'New Jersey.' Apparently the paper was mailed to her. You can find out easily enough what New Jersey newspaper this is from the type font and the head-lines. Then check with the circulation department and you can get her address."
"Callahan—well, it might be that," Grange grunted.
"I have a plan," went on Argus. "I—He heard a familiar voice outside the door. "Wait a minute!" He pulled open the door. Then he exclaimed: "Butch!"
"Boss—Boss," he was out of breath. "Them dumb headquarters flacks wouldn't tell me where you at the top, 'an,' may be the tail end of 'Callahan.' Marjorie Scott Speaks at WHS Commercial Club

Miss Marjorie Scott, 1943 president, was the speaker when the WHS Commercial Club met for its monthly meeting and a delightful tea at the high school home room.

Miss Scott pointed out how much things learned in classes helped her after she began to work. She advised her former club-mates to study, learn to cultivate a telephone manner and to stay after hours if necessary. The tea table was covered with pastel cloths and colors of the cloth were repeated in the pastel-iced cookies. Intricate and cleverly cut chicken sandwiches were arranged attractively to complete the tempting display.

The food committee was Misses Carolyn Gerhardt, Clara Blade and Doris Brandenburg. Program committee was Misses Donna Jett, Margaret Pollack and Barbara Zimmerman. Miss Gladys Melson and Mrs. Margaret Schneider Bailey are advisors of the club.

DECLARATION OF INCOME MUST BE FILED IN APRIL

Fifteenth Is Fixed as Final Filing on Income Estimate

Another income tax declaration of estimated income and victory tax must be filed with Uncle Sam by April 15 by a great number of income tax payers in this community, even though the annual income tax report has just been filed.

The declaration provides a basis for paying currently, taxes owed in excess of the tax withheld on wages. This is a necessary part of the pay-as-you-go system of tax collections, it is stated in a release on the matter.

The official statement issued in connection with the declaration says:

"Taxes are withheld from the wages of most individuals by their employers and paid quarterly to the treasury. This keeps most employed persons substantially paid up on their taxes.

"Declarations and quarterly payments of estimated tax are required of persons who are not substantially paid up on their taxes by withholding from wages.

"Who Must Make a Declaration: A declaration must be made by every citizen or resident of the United States who, if—

"Single or married but not living with spouse, (whether or not the head of a family), expects to receive in 1944—

"More than $2,700 of wages subject to withholding; or,

"More than $100 of income from all other sources, provided, his, or her, income is expected to amount to $500.00 or more.

"Married and living with spouse, expects to receive in 1944, either alone or with his spouse—

"More than $3,500 of wages subject to withholding; or,

"More than $100 of income from all other sources, provided—their total combined income is expected to amount to $1,200 or more; or total separate income of either spouse is expected to amount to more than $624.00.

"Payment of Estimated Tax: The statement of Estimated Tax will allow for crediting the amount of withholdings from wages during the year, and the amount of over-payment shown on your 1943 tax return, if you so elected in the filing of that return.

"The balance of the estimated tax may be paid in full with the declaration; or, may be paid in equal quarterly installments, the first payment being due and payable with the filing of the declaration.

School Board Banquet To Be Biggest Yet Held

FIFTH ANNUAL AFFAIR TO BE FRIDAY NIGHT

'Dusty' Miller To Be Speaker At Meeting in Bloomingburg

Steadily increasing in interest and attendance, over 160 are expected when the Fayette County Association of School Board Members has its fifth annual banquet Friday night in Bloomingburg.

Thurman, "Dusty" Miller of Wilmington is to be the after-dinner speaker. Miller, columnist and former editor of the Wilmington New-Journal, has many friends in Washington C. H. and Fayette County. He has spoken here on numerous occasions and many who attend the Friday night have met him personally. Miller is the author of "Uncle Bill."

Board members, their wives, principals and superintendents and their wives or husbands will attend the meeting, W. J. Hilty, superintendent of county schools said. He indicated few non-school officials will be present.

The meeting is purely social, not a business session, Hilty emphasized. Music supervisors in the county schools—Mrs. Helen Huff, Mrs. Ellen Pensyl, Mrs. Elizabeth Dunkel, Miss Mary Jeanne Gage and Miss Sara McSpadden—will provide entertainment, Hilty said. Miss Harriett Lee Holdren, Good Hope accordionist, also will be on the program.

Tracing the growth in attendance, Hilty pointed out only 120 were at the first banquet five years ago. Since then, mounting attendance is expected to bring the meeting to the all-time high this year.

The dinner will be served by the Bloomingburg PTA. Mrs. Thomas Parrett, head of the dinner committee, said the menu would be fruit juice cocktail, scalloped chicken, green beans, sweet potatoes, jello salad, angel food cake, topped with whipped cream and peaches.

A yellow and white color scheme will be used as decorations for the long tables. The economic department will assist PTA members in serving the dinner in the school building.

Omar Rapp, president of the vice-president; Charles E. Seibert, secretary-treasurer and Leonard Dorn, Nathaniel Tway and Russell Theobald, executive committee members are in charge of the association; O. T. Mossbarger, banquet.

AUTO TAG DEADLINE IS DRAWING NEAR

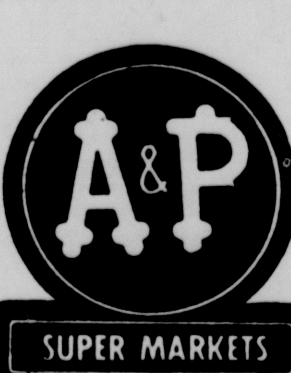

Last Minute Rush Seen at Auto Club Office

With Friday the last day for obtaining auto tags before the deadline which makes it a violation of law to display old license plates on and after April 1, indications are that there will be the usual last minute rush for motor vehicle tags at the office of the Fayette County Auto Club on South Main Street.

The Auto Club office will be open Thursday and Friday evenings to further aid those who have not obtained their license plates. It was stated Wednesday that the number of license plates sold to-date is greater than the number sold up to the same time last year.

SPECIAL TAXES ARE TO GO UP ON SATURDAY

Big Boosts To Be Made On Many Lines of Necessities

Don't think some merchant is trying to spring an April fool joke on you on April first if he says the tax on certain goods is much greater than you have been paying!

Federal taxes will mount on April 1 and some of them will be felt keenly by the public generally.

For instance movie tickets, telephone bills, liquor, cosmetics, and a score of articles will show a pronounced increase in taxes.

Just what the amount of increase in theater admission taxes will be is not clear.

The levy on furs, cosmetics, jewelry and luggage will go from 10 to 20 percent of the retail price. That on electric light bulbs from 5 to 20 percent of the manufacturers' price.

The tax on charges for local telephone service will increase from 10 to 15 percent; on toll calls, from 20 to 25 percent.

On whisky, the tax increase amounts to 75 cents a quart of 100 proof. It will be about 60 cents for the average bottle of lower proof.

The Office of Price Administration has authorized bars to increase the price of individual drinks 2 to 4 cents, depending on the size and proof, but an OPA spokesman in Washington suggested that many would prefer to absorb the increase rather than deal in odd cents.

OPA also authorized a one-cent increase in the price of an 8-ounce beer.

These excise taxes are expected to produce $1,051,000,000 additional revenue. The rest of the $2,300,000,000 total in the revenue bill will come from higher taxes on individual incomes and corporation profits.

ADMIT COLLEGE TO ASSOCIATION

Wilmington College Now in N. C. A.

Wilmington College was admitted on March 24 to membership in the North Central Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools, the highest accrediting agency for this section of the country. Membership in the association will mean that the college's credits will be acceptable without question in all parts of the country, since other sections consult the N.C.A. rating list for this area. Admission to the association was the result of a three-year effort on the part of the college, involving the submission of many reports covering every detail of the college administration and two investigations by North Central examiners.

A faculty-student dinner will be held next Tuesday by way of official celebration.

FDR ASKS $64,390,000 FOR OWI ACTIVITIES

WASHINGTON, March 30.—(P)—President Roosevelt today asked Congress to appropriate $64,390,000 for the Office of War Information's activities in the fiscal year beginning July 1, stating increased funds were required for operations in liberated areas, for an increased tempo of propaganda in enemy territory, and "for activities in conjunction with military operations which cannot be foreseen in detail at this time."

She's as Lively as a Youngster—Now her Backache is better.

Many sufferers relieve nagging backache quickly, once they discover that the real cause of their trouble may be tired kidneys. The kidneys are Nature's chief way of taking the excess acids and waste out of the blood. They help most people pass about 3 pints a day.

When disorder of kidney function permits poisonous matter to remain in your blood, it may cause nagging backache, rheumatic pains, leg pains, loss of pep and energy, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headache and dizziness. Frequent or scanty passages with smarting and burning sometimes shows there is something wrong with your kidneys or bladder.

Don't wait! Ask your druggist for Doan's Pills, used successfully by millions for over 40 years. They give happy relief and will help the 15 miles of kidney tubes flush out poisonous waste from your blood. Get Doan's Pills.

Japs Have Guts But 'Damn Fools'

Washington C. H. Officer Writes

NEW DECORATION HAS BEEN GIVEN TO LT. COL. HAYS

Artillery Bombardment So Loud Sleep Impossible Where 37th Fighting

"We have had a lot more activity recently than we have had in several months," Lt. Col. Harold Hays said of the campaign against the Japs in the Solomons in a letter just received by his sister, Mrs. Tim Hughes, here.

Lt. Col. Hays, a native of Washington C. H., has been with the now famous 37th division in the island-hopping war in the Pacific for nearly two years. Word has just come back that he has been decorated with the army's newest medal for infantrymen—a silver rifle on a blue field with a silver border, imposed on an elliptical silver wreath. The award is made for "exemplary conduct in combat or for combat action in a major operation."

Award Not Mentioned
Lt. Col. Hays made no mention of the award in his letter to his sister and his family knew of the honor only through newspaper accounts.

Starting his overseas service May 26, 1942, Lt. Col. Hays is believed to have seen service with the 37th division in the Fiji Islands, on Guadalcanal, New Georgia and now on Bougainville where some of the bloodiest and stubbornest battles against the Japs have been fought. He entered the service as a captain, as a reserve officer with a background of experience in the first World War. His advancement in recognition of his service has been rapid.

Lt. Col. Hays' wife is living in Columbus. Two brothers, Ralph and Emmett, live here.

Although his letter to his sister did not say exactly where he was located at the time he wrote it, he left no doubt about the intensity of the fighting. It follows in full:

Japs Have Guts

"We have had a lot more activity recently than we have had for several months. The Japs apparently didn't think there was room enough on this island for them and us too. So they decided to push us into the sea. We don't like to be pushed. We don't care so much for the island but it is as good as any in this area. We want to leave for a rest area or home but we don't intend to start swimming."

"Result: A lot of trouble to us and some expense but a large number of Nips realized their ambition to die for their Emperor. They have plenty of guts but in a lot of cases are just plain dam fools. In some places bodies were thick on the ground."

"Our artillery and dive bombers really gave them hell as well as the riflemen and machinegunners. There has been a lot of artillery and mortar duels with us having a large edge in our favor. Lots of the shells whistle as they go over our heads. Some of the Jap soldiers are not the only sneaking things the boys of Ohio's 37th division have to contend with as they grub the enemy out of the jungles of the Solomon Islands, often in hand-to-hand fighting. But, they are winning their fight against all of them. A python that slithered into a foxhole occupied by the two dough-boys shown above found out too late that it was no more welcome than the Japs. These two boys, however, do not happen to be Ohioans but the Ohioans who have been battling the Japs on these tropical isles have had the same experiences, and more. The snake killers are Pfc. Ernest O. Gosbee of Quincy, Mass., and Cpl. James A. Terrell of Bradford, Pa.

WCH Boy Kills 11 Japs In Battle When Wounded

Pfc. Don S. Kellough, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold W. Kellough of the Prairie Road, is still in a Naval hospital in Hawaii recovering from wounds in his left leg.

Four Jap machine gun bullets chewed their way into his leg, his parents learned, but Pfc. Kellough wrote them he can remember how he killed 11 Japs in the same battle which sent him to a hospital.

Where and when the battle was, his parents do not know. Neither do they know where the hospital is, except that it is in the Hawaiian Islands somewhere.

In his last letter, the not-quite 19-year-old Marine who has seen 34 months of service wrote this to his parents:

"I have been feeling pretty miserable lately because my best buddy was killed over there. He was surely a splendid fellow who has been married to a fine looking girl for about three years. He had been overseas two years and they had a little boy whom he had never seen."

"I mean to tell you I cried when I learned that he was dead and that has happened only twice since my enlistment in the Marines. You've heard of guys praying in a fox hole and some don't believe that, but it's true. I guess you know I did and I wasn't the only one."

"After that terrible battle, the one in which I was wounded and artillery men call them 'angels of mercy' to take the Japs out of their misery. The noise at times is so loud and thunderous that sleep is impossible most of the nights."

"After the bodies are exposed to the elements for a couple of days in this climate, the stench is terrific. Some members of the burying parties really get sick."

ISLAND SEIZED IN SWIFT DRIVE BY OHIO OUTFIT

Delayed Dispatch Tells How Yanks Carry Out Attack On Base in Solomons

WITH THE 37TH INFANTRY DIVISION IN BOUGAINVILLE—(AP)—(Delayed)—Lt. Col. Herbert W. Radcliffe of Kenton, Ohio, an infantry commander, gathered his officers in the headquarters tent to explain their mission.

They were to proceed to Kuria Mission up the southwest coast from the Empress Augusta Bay beach head to find out if any Japs were entrenched there.

All instructions were gone over carefully and questions answered and at midnight Capt. Orville C. Wendt of Clyde, Ohio, leader of the large patrol and Capt. Herman Lutz of Jacksonville, Fla., battalion operations officer, roused the men for breakfast.

After a short ride in two and one-half ton trucks, the patrol arrived at the beach and loaded into LCMs (landing craft medium) and began the 20-mile water trek to the Mission.

Two hours later Captain Wendt, Second Lieut. Clifford W. Eberle, of Lakeside, Ohio, First Lieut. James H. Endsley, Akron, Ohio, commanding the rifle troops; First Lieut. John Pinnell, Houston, Texas, medical officer went ashore with their men at a location nearly two miles south of the Mission.

They were to proceed cautiously up the coast with a rifle platoon commanded by Second Lieut. Chester B. Richey of Memphis, Tenn., as the point of the main body which was to follow under Captain Wendt. The two landing boats which discharged this personnel returned to the boat pool at Empress Augusta Bay. The remaining craft idled off the shore about 500 yards, waiting for the beach head to be secured before unloading heavy machine guns, 81-millimeter mortars, and personnel to man these pieces with sufficient ammunition for a couple of days of heavy fighting.

Officers Await Word
Until late in the afternoon anxious officers on the craft out in the water waited for news of the patrol's progress. Captain Lutz and First Lieut. Robert F. Millers, of Maysville, Ky., commanding the heavy machine guns, and Staff Sgt. John Green of Ada, Ohio, in charge of the mortars were getting restive as the day began to draw to a close.

They knew it was necessary for a force to begin to dig in and establish a perimeter long before dark. And they didn't want to return to Empress Augusta Bay without getting the guns, ammunition and men ashore. But neither could they chance staying out in the water all night.

Finally Second Lieut. Lawrence W. Bondy of Toledo, Ohio, communications officer motioned Captain Lutz that he had a message. Captain Wendt had radioed that the patrol was going "forward carefully and was about to cross

HIGH SCHOOLERS MAY ENLIST IN NAVY NOW

17-year-olds in Final Semester Are Eligible

Seventeen-year-olds in their final semester of high school may now enlist in the Navy and be placed on inactive to finish school and receive their diplomas, according to William Porter, PO 1-c, recruiter who is at the post office here each Wednesday.

Young men meeting the age and school qualifications can take preliminary physical examinations at the Navy station in the Post Office Building in Chillicothe and then will be sent to Columbus for completion of papers and final physical examination, he said.

If found qualified on all points, they will be sworn into the Navy and returned to their homes on inactive duty to complete the school year. "These boys have complete assurance their high school education will not be interrupted and they will not be called to active duty until after graduation," Porter said.

Signed consent of parents or guardians must be obtained before a 17-year-old boy can enlist in the Navy under this new program, it is emphasized.

The only tin smelter in South America is located in Argentina.

a river before the Mission which was on high ground. Seconds later, the men on the craft heard a single rifle shot which sounded as though it had come from the direction of the Mission.

Terse Message
There was radio silence for about half an hour and then Captain Wendt sent a terse message. "Land the men and ammunition as soon as possible and watch for a blinker light which would signal a suitable place for beaching the boats."

Motors were kicked over and the two boats moved slowly in the direction of the blinker. The beach was made after two unsuccessful tries. Captain Wendt, obviously worried, told Captain Lutz that the point had run into a hornet's nest. It had suffered eight killed and seven wounded. Captain Wendt said he had had little communication with Lieutenant Richey because the point was now engaged in a furious fight. (The next day it was learned that three men had been killed, one wounded, instead of eight killed and seven missing.)

Surveying the situation Captain Wendt decided that it would be virtually impossible for the men to hand-carry the heavy mortar and machine gun ammunition through the jungle up to where his men were establishing a defensive perimeter. He ordered the ammunition reloaded to be discharged farther up the coast right under the guns of the Japanese defenders. There was no other choice. Either land it up farther on the coast or take it back to Empress Augusta Bay.

The reloading was accomplished and directions were given for a wide-sweep around a point which was between the rear patrol command post and Kuria Mission. It was to come into the contemplated beaching position head on.

The landing was made successfully but it took an anxious half hour to unload the boats. Those remaining on the two LCMs sweated real blood because they knew that the old reason why the Japs were dropping 90-millimeter shells on the boats was due to the fact that they didn't want to disclose their positions.

After the ammunition and men had gone ashore the boats lay out in the water waiting to evacuate the casualties. Captain Wendt, moments later, radioed the boats to "go on it" because it would take too long to get the wounded and dead out and he wanted Colonel Radcliffe to get the information of the initial skirmish. Wendt, from the brief action, could not ascertain definitely the size of the force confronting them although he sensed that it was quite formidable.

As the boats headed back to the American beach head swarms of dive bombers dropped more than 10 tons of bombs where they thought the Japs were and strafed the area twice. About 4 P. M. Capt. Wendt had asked for an air strike and an hour later the planes were over the target.

Meanwhile, Captain Wendt made his position secure and covered by light machine guns Lieut. Richey's platoon, with its dead and wounded recrossed the river to the comparative safety of the perimeter established by the main body.

The battle for Kuria Mission had begun.

Five Harness Horses Here Bought for Campaigning on Eastern Tracks This Season

Doctor S, the chunky brown pacer Elmer Junk salvaged from the discard two years ago and developed into a smart and successful race horse, is going east Saturday, barring wartime transportation difficulties, to campaign on the swank big time tracks next summer.

But, he is not the only harness horse to make the jump from the Fairground training headquarters here.

Frank Woodland, racing secretary for the big harness horse race meet at Saratoga, N. Y., who has been at his home here for the past week, has been contracting for some top trotters and pacers here as agent for some prominent eastern sportsmen.

Doctor S, for which the purchase price was reliably reported to run into four figures, is to go to John Roderick at Chatham, N. Y., for training. Woodland said, adding that he would make his first start at the Roosevelt Raceway, Long Island, N. Y., in May and from there would be shipped to Saratoga where he has been entered in six stakes with a total value of $6,000.

Among the other horses Woodland has purchased here are:

—Spying— On Sports

By Hugh Fullerton, Jr.

NEW YORK, March 30.—(AP)—Giving some consideration, no doubt, to Utah's success in the N. C. A. A. cage tournament, Wyoming is planning to resume basketball next season with Ev Shelton returning to his old job as coach. And Colorado likely will follow suit if the army vacates the field house. Real hard-luck guy of the hardwood is Neal Harris, Albright College coach. He worked all season tutoring an 18-year-old, six-foot, 8½ freshman for stardom next year—drilling him to become a "goal tender"—and now the rules makers have wiped out a season's labor.

Juan Zurita, N. B. A. lightweight champ who fights Beau Jack tomorrow, holds an amateur flyer's license and has had 100 hours of solo flying.

The Bowlers Victory Legion has purchased 200,000 decks of cards, 133,000 books and 17,000 fishing kits for men in the armed forces. . . . The Philly Eagles report hearing from a football prospect who is 4-F "because I have only one eye, a few bad teeth, a bad nose, flat feet and a bad knee." If his name ever leaks out, the Eagles fear the rush of rival clubs to sign the guy will be terrific. . . . Freddie Sommers, who once managed Cleo Shans for Olsen and Johnson, reports Milton Berle has offered $5,000 for a half interest in lightweight Mike Delia. . . . Wonder why he always picks on comedians? . . . Rochester U., which apparently liked its taste of big-time football last fall, is looking for a "name" coach to replace Bud De Groot, at a fancy salary.

Tommy Loughran, former light heavyweight champion now a physical instructor at the Philadelphia Navy Yard, has been promoted to staff sergeant in the Marines. . . . And Jack Dempsey has been upped to commander in the Coast Guard. . . . Lambert Redd, formerly Bradley Tech broad jumper, has returned to the United States after flying 187 sorties against the Japs. . . . After one look at the remodeled Tome School baseball field, the ex-big leaguers at the Bainbridge, Md., naval training station boomed "Uncle" and Athletic Officer Lieut. Hardy Pierce went about building some fences only 300 to 400 feet from the plate. . . . Capt. Chuck Fenske of Trux Field, Wis., who held the indoor mile record until Gil Dodds busted it, thinks that Dodds could do better than his 4:09.4 with more attention to his pace. "Dodds has developed a habit of getting out there and unwinding like a clock," says Chuck.

De la Cruz and the Cincinnati Reds have been under the impression that because he was a native and citizen of Cuba he was not subject to the draft. Tomas is cabling Havana for official clarification of his status and at the same time asking the people in Syracuse to send his papers here so he won't have to crowd the trains to New York.

The War Food Administration has raised 1944's milk production goal a billion quarts over the 1943 total.

The veteran Chuckworthy, 204½, which has been raced by Ernie Smith for several seasons, from Charles McGowan of Osgood, Ind. He goes to O. Corbell at Montreal, Can.

Jean R, 3-year-old filly by Jack the Ripper out of Bonnie Belle by Peter S, from Seymour Campbell for the Pine Needle Farm at Grafton, Mass. She is strictly a Fayette County bred and trained product.

Court Reporter, a 2-year-old trotter by Blackstone out of a dam by Malcomb Forbes, from McKinley Kirk for the Locust Farm at Loudenville, N. Y.

Abbe Cheer, 2:08, by Bert Abbe from J. E. Pyke of Urbana for Pine Needles Farm.

Rosy Future, a 2-year-old by Jack the Ripper, from McKinley Kirk for himself. She will be sent to Roderick for training.

Woodland said the horses which have proven themselves in racing will be campaigned over the big eastern tracks, principally at New York and Saratoga, and that the youngsters also will be raced there if they come up to expectations.

Woodland was to return to the headquarters of the eastern tracks this week to resume work on planning the forthcoming race meets there.

Red Rhumba Boy Gets Draft Call

BLOOMINGTON, Ind., March 30.—(AP)—It now seems that Tomas de la Cruz, that exponent of rhumba in baseball and a fair country pitcher to boot, may not be an answer to the Cincinnati Reds' mound needs.

Tomas received what he described as an "invitation" from a draft board in Syracuse, N. Y., where he played last year, to report to New York April 1, a well-known date for a physical examination.

De la Cruz and the Cincinnati Reds have been under the impression that because he was a native and citizen of Cuba he was not subject to the draft. Tomas is cabling Havana for official clarification of his status and at the same time asking the people in Syracuse to send his papers here so he won't have to crowd the trains to New York.

AERONAUTS Spring Training in North HOLD LEAD; Has Most Managers Moaning NO GAIN

The league leading Aeronauts failed to widen the gap separating them from the second place Gremlins when they lost the middle game of their match with the B-19s in Wednesday night's API Women's League bowling on the Main Street alleys. With each team registering one blind score, the Aeronauts won the first game by 103 pins then went into a tail spin and lost the second, but they recovered sufficiently to take the finale by nine pins in a nip and tuck game.

The Gremlins muffed their opportunity to close in on the Aeronauts and retain their lost prestige when they lost the opener of their match with the Spitfires by 336 pins. After that, however, they threw monkey wrenches into the Spitfires machinery and took the last two, the second by a wide margin.

The P-38s won the first two games of their match with the tailfin Gliders, but were swamped in the finale when the Gliders started scattering the ducks all over the place for a fat 827 score.

'Swing Shift' Plan in Use In Baseball

By OSCAR KAHAN
CAIRO, Ill., March 30.—(AP)—Even in this day of manpower shortage, it isn't likely that the major leagues will go back to the old days when pitchers played outfield between mound assignments. But, of course, it wouldn't be a bad idea if stars like Babe Ruth were around to do it.

As a more practical alternative to meet the wartime emergency, Manager Billy Southworth of the St. Louis Cardinals has the right setup today in what could be called his "swing shift" squad. He has several players available who can be transferred from one position to another in the event the service calls or injuries open gaps in the regular lineup.

The two older veterans, Debs Garms and Pepper Martin, are listed as outfielders but both have played third base.

Johnny Hopp is coming up for pre-induction examination, but if he still is around the Cardinals will have an experienced man for the outfield and as a substitute for first-baseman Ray Sanders.

The smelt, a fish common to Lake Michigan, disappeared mysteriously from those waters in the winter of 1943.

NEW YORK, March 30.—(AP)—While major league managers are moaning, "who said ball teams never will train in the South again?" President Ford Frick of the National League can find a little sunshine in the clouds.

Stopping off in a snowstorm at Muncie, Ind., to visit the Pittsburgh Pirates, Frick pointed out that all clubs were suffering equally from bad weather.

"The players are deriving certain physical benefits by holding indoor exercises and hoping for a streak of sunshine," he commented. "I realize, however, it's impossible to judge by what the athletes do in the gym just now they will stack up in actual baseball conditions."

Pirate Manager Frankie Frisch might have been inclined to ask what are those "certain physical benefits" as he cancelled today's scheduled exhibition with the Freeman Field team and prepared to head for Louisville, Ky., for a day of practice before week-end exhibitions against the Chicago White Sox.

TRAPS SET FOR JAPS IN BURMA - - YANKS MOPPING UP ISLANDS

reeled backward with heavy losses.

Adm. Lord Louis Mountbatten's New Delhi headquarters, reporting these successes, pointed out the increasing role of air power in this theater. Allied planes have bombed and strafed Japanese positions in India and have helped clear a way for Stilwell's two-pronged advance.

The Chinese troops laid their trap by cutting in behind enemy troops who couldn't be budged frontally. They were reported closing the trap with all haste, hoping to capture as much Japanese artillery as possible. The work of the Chinese was a fruit of long, patient tutoring by Gen. Stilwell's Americans.

In the Pacific Allied airmen steadily pounded away at favorite targets such as Rabaul on New Britain and went on to pick out a new objective, Pakin Island. Pakin, hit for the first time Monday, is just 18 miles northwest of Ponape—which would make a good base, in American hands, for the reduction of powerful Truk to the west. Ponape has itself been struck ever harder air blows in recent weeks.

Ninety-three tons of bombs fell on reeling Rabaul, destroying 39 buildings. (Tokyo radio conceded "enemy raids on Rabaul are becoming more persistent," and said 335 planes attacked in two days this week.)

The wide range of the air attacks took Allied airmen westward to "Hollandia on the north coast of Dutch New Guinea, and to Timor in the Dutch East Indies, an area long under complete Japanese dominion.

Mop-up fighting continued on Bougainville in the Solomons, where trapped Japanese have been trying suicidal assaults against Americans dug in near Empress Augusta Bay.

The Japanese had other worries. Gen. Kensuke Fujiyama warned the homeland, Tokyo radio said, that Allied air raids on the Japanese capital were inevitable, and called for their best efforts to defend the city.

American fighter-bombers tore through Japanese interceptors and damaged rail facilities at Nanchang in central China yesterday, Gen. Stilwell's headquarters announced. Other Allied planes the day before hit bridges, a warehouse, an airfield. In the two-day operations the 14th air force lost no planes.

Despite Cassino, the final chapter of the story has not yet unfolded.

Reviewing the air campaign out of England during the last week, Stimson said that "as in many recent battle drives over Germany, the Luftwaffe was a reluctant dragon." He added the Luftwaffe "no doubt remains a potent force."

In the southwest Pacific our ground forces, planes and warships during the week "added to the mounting total of Japanese losses," Stimson said. During the past week, he said, four sizable ships have been destroyed and two damaged and 14 smaller craft sunk. In addition 56 enemy barges were destroyed or damaged.

The advance of Japanese columns from Burma across the Indian border, the secretary commented, "naturally necessitates effective counter-action. The enemy units in the present operations are relatively strong and, if successful they could do damage to Allied supply lines."

RAY MADDOX IS SHRINE CLUB PRESIDENT NOW

Elected at Banquet Where Lt. Gov. Paul Herbert Speaks Wednesday Night

Ray Maddox is today president of the Washington C. H. Shrine Club after a banquet and election at the Country Club Wednesday night attended by 125 Shriners and guests.

The banquet honored Potentate F. Merrill McLaughlin and his divan of Aladdin Temple and Noble Paul Herbert, Lt. Governor of Ohio. The visiting party included five past potentates and more than 20 members of the uniformed bodies who provided the program of music, songs, novelty acts and magic.

Noble Herbert, in his brief comments, said the hope of the future is in the brotherhood of men and the faith in oneself, faith in one's fellowmen and faith in God. "The Masonic fraternity offers one of the means to accomplish this purpose," he said.

Other officers elected Wednesday night are Frank Jackson, vice-president; A. W. Duff, secretary-treasurer and Ray Brandenburg and Walter Craig, directors. These men, with Colin C. Campbell, immediate past president, will form the board of the organization.

Campbell presided over the business meeting and Belford Carpenter acted as toastmaster.

Harry Carson, master of ceremonies of the program, introduced the Picadors, a seven-piece string band which has played at every Aladdin ceremonial and Imperial Council meeting in the past 15 years. Ad Ritter directed the musicians.

The Three Stooges, Al Nice, Lou Crysler and Joe Miller, sang and joked their way through their hillbilly act. Haltar Dunninger, mind reader, mystified his audience with his clairvoyance and ability to pull names and addresses out of the air.

Nice, former fire chief in Columbus, has been a member of the floorwalkers for 43 years. At 79, he is still active.

Charles Lauderbach and Lou Crysler, vocalists, sang several duets and Ralph Shirkey, singer with the Picadors, had a solo number.

Fenton and his Mystic Bells provided the kind of entertainment the audience can make too. He distributed numbered bells and played a typewriter-like instrument which lighted numbers on a board. When a number was lit, the man holding a bell with the corresponding number rang it until the number was off the board.

Herman and Lena Moss, with their accordion ensemble, appeared just before the Picadors made their final bow with the entire group singing "God Bless America."

Visiting notables from the Aladdin Temple were Potentate McLaughlin, John Summers, chief rabban; William Berkheimer, assistant rabban; Ray Zirkel, recorder; Ed Neal, treasurer; Dr. Frank Star, high priest and prophet; Thomas A. Bangs, oriental potentate; Past Potentates Dr. W. D. Murphy, John Kuhns, Judge Dana Reynolds, Neath Jones and Charles Nixon; Chet Sherman, chairman of the committee of Aladdin Temple and Joe Miller, chairman of the sales tax stamp fund.

Walter Craig was general chairman of the banquet committee; George A. Steen headed the reception committee; John Leland, the invitation committee; Ora Allen, the fellowship committee; Earl Parker, the credential committee and Harold Maddux, the refreshments committee.

The United States now supplies about 95 per cent of the aviation gasoline used by the United Nations.

H., but now a resident of Bellview, Ky., was injured severely when his bus was struck by a truck-trailer at Town and Sandusky streets, Columbus, Wednesday. Three women were injured so severely they were removed to a hospital where they are still patients, and 13 other passengers were injured less seriously.

Shackelford sustained a sprained and bruised arm and shoulder and was treated at a hospital then released, passing through this city Wednesday evening en route home.

The bus was carrying 35 passengers at the time and was en route from Cincinnati to Cleveland. The truck trailer was owned by the Commercial Motor Freight, Inc., and driven by Ray Maynard, Cincinnati.

DEATH ROW TO CLAIM COLLETT FRIDAY MORNING

Business Matters Being Taken Care of Here Thursday

James W. Collett, sentenced to die in the electric chair July 26, was still in the county jail here Thursday, while looking after business matters before being moved to the Ohio Penitentiary and placed in "death row" to await execution for the first degree murder of the Elmer McCoy family "for profit."

Sheriff W. H. Icenhower said Thursday that he will take Collett to the penitentiary Friday forenoon, and turn him over to the warden and deliver the death warrant at the same time.

Collett has eaten little since Wednesday morning, and the death sentence passed upon him Wednesday by Judge H. M. Rankin has weighed heavily upon him.

He refused breakfast when it was taken to him Thursday morning, after also having declined to eat his evening meal Wednesday. However, he ate an orange later in the morning, and appeared to relish it.

His attorneys, wife and son were expected to confer with him about business matters Thursday, as the attorneys had asked that he be kept here until Friday so they could look after business.

Many persons who read his statement made Wednesday, in which he said he had been struck over the head with a piece of pipe, recall that he had told members of his family in the presence of two or three witnesses that "they treated me like a gentleman" in Toledo.

Regarding his claim of innocence, it is also pointed out that he not only confessed to killing Elmer McCoy, and the confession was not made under duress, but he was found guilty by a jury, and the court, in overruling motion for a new trial, said: "The defendant was proved guilty beyond all doubt."

TRUCK STOLEN IN NOVEMBER IS RECOVERED

Alleged Thief Is Given Chance To Join United States Marines

A truck stolen from the Brandenburg parking lot last November 26, has been recovered by Sheriff W. H. Icenhower, in Columbus, where it was abandoned in a parking lot and had, for some unknown reason, never been reported to the authorities.

The investigation made by Sheriff Icenhower disclosed that the truck had been stolen by Robert Engle, of the Leesburg community, who was taken into custody last year for theft of motorcycle parts from the Duff home in Marion Township, and who, according to Sheriff Icenhower, not only admitted theft of the truck here but numerous other crimes in this part of Ohio, including three robberies in Leesburg.

This week Engle was arraigned in the juvenile court in Highland County, and Sheriff Icenhower was present for the hearing.

A series of burglaries in Leesburg was responsible for his arraignment in the Highland County court, and after hearing the evidence, Judge Roads placed young Engle in the custody of his parents, who are to see that he joins the Marines, or return him to court for further disposition. Judge Roads warned the parents that failure to live up to their part of the agreement concerning their son would result in their being brought before the court for action.

According to Sheriff Icenhower Engle drove the stolen truck from this city to Leesburg, committed burglaries there, and then drove to Columbus, where he parked but did not reclaim it.
